- The Match of the Week features the two teams from the EHF Champions League final in 2016: Lomza Vive Kielce and Telekom Veszprém HC. Kielce won 39:38 in what is still the only men's final in CL history that was decided by a penalty shoot-out.

- Only one player from Kielce's golden 2016 squad is involved in this MOTW – but he is meanwhile playing for Veszprém: left wing Manuel Strlek.

- Goalkeeper Vladimir Cupara is another former Kielce player now wearing the Veszprém jersey.

- Veszprém's new coaches Momir Ilic and Peter Gulyas were involved in that 2016 final as players, as were Andreas Nilsson, Mate Lekai and Gasper Marguc, who are still part of Veszprém's squad in 2021/22.

- Veszprém have been to the EHF FINAL4 six times and played the final three times, but have so far failed to win the title; they defeated Kielce in the 2019 semi-final before losing to Vardar the final.

- Kielce lost their season opener against Dinamo Bucuresti last week, while Veszprém defeated PSG.

- Veszprém have won 10 and lost three of their 14 CL matches against Kielce in the past; their last match was in the 2019/20 group phase, with Veszprém winning 28:24.

- Two French Olympic champions will duel in MOTW: Veszprém centre back Kentin Mahe and Kielce line player Nicolas Tournat; Kielce newcomer Dylan Nahi was not part of the French team in Tokyo.

- Kielce play their 19th CL season, Veszprém their 27th.

- Kielce retained the Polish title in 2020/21; Veszprém were beaten to the Hungarian title by Pick Szeged.

- Both teams have started their domestic league seasons in 2021/22 with three straight victories.

- Kielce coach Talant Dujšhebaev became the first man to win the CL as a player (Santander 1994) and as a coach (Ciudad Real 2006, 2008, 2009; Kielce 2016).

- New Veszprém coach Momir Ilic won the CL twice as a player (Kiel 2010, 2012) and could become the fourth man to win the title also as a coach, following Talant Dujšhebaev, Roberto Parrando, and Filip Jicha.

- Both teams lost to HBC Nantes in the knockout phase last season: Kielce in the play-offs (58:56 on aggregate), Veszprém in the quarter-final (62:60).

- In the all-time CL standings, Veszprém are second behind Barça with 211 wins, 16 draws, and 86 defeats; Kielce are ninth with 110 wins, 17 draws, and 68 defeats.
