- The MOTW in the first leg of the EHF Champions League Women 2022/23 quarter-finals features the two most experienced teams left in the competition.
- FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria are playing their 23rd CL season, Metz Handball their 24th.
- FTC are in the CL quarter-finals for the fifth time since the introduction of the EHF FINAL4 Women in 2014, but the team from Budapest have so far failed to qualify for the season-ending event in their hometown.
- Metz were the first team from France to appear at an EHF FINAL4 – in 2019 – and returned to Budapest in 2022, but failed to reach the final on both occasions.
- In the CL 2022/23 group phase, FTC finished fourth in group A with 15 points to advance to the play-offs, where they beat WHC Buducnost BEMAX twice.
- Metz won their last nine matches to finish top of group B with 25 points and they skipped the play-offs.
- Their impressive group phase campaign included two wins over record CL winners Györi Audi ETO KC.

FTC and Metz played each other 16 times before in European competitions, but only two of those matches were in a knockout phase – of the Cup Winners' Cup.

Both teams celebrated domestic successes last weekend: FTC beat Győr 28:27 in the Hungarian cup final; Metz secured their 25th title in the French league.

Both teams have long-standing coaches: FTC have been led by Gábor Elek since 2007; Metz have been guided by Emmanuel Mayonnade since 2015.

They both coached a national team, but stepped down from that role after the 2020 Olympics: Elek led Hungary; Mayonnade was in charge of Netherlands.

Mayonnade coached Netherlands when they won the 2019 World Championship in Japan, with Angela Malestein (FTC) and Debbie Bont (Metz) in the squad; Bont has recently retired from the national team.

Three German internationals are involved in this MOTW: Emily Bölk and Alicia Stolle with FTC; Luisa Schulze with Metz, having joined the club in January.

FTC's squad includes two former CL winners: Andrea Lekic (with Győr) and Dragana Cvijic (twice with Buducnost); no Metz player has lifted the trophy yet.

FTC's Katrin Klujber is the third-best scorer in the CL 2022/23 with 100 goals; Bruna De Paula leads for Metz with 77 goals, but she will miss the MOTW.

Injury report – FTC: Béatrice Edwige, Anett Kovács, Luca Kármán (all knee surgery); Metz: Bruna De Paula (sprained ankle), Camila Micijevic (torn ACL).
